Vintage French Maps Wallpaper

Ooh la la! A stunning maps wallpaper that in turn is aesthetically pleasing, educational and informative. Vintage French Maps is a contemporary twist on those classrooms from bygone days where the walls were covered in maps. Although they are called French Maps, this name actually comes from the country in which they were originally produced and in fact is a montage of continents and countries across the globe. These are the style of maps that 19th century explorers used to pour over when planning their next expeditions long before modern air travel made our world a much smaller place. The colors and style of this maps wallpaper lend themselves to any space in your home that you want to turn into somewhere original and eye catching. We can also picture it as a feature in a small, independent travel agency but then again it would look awesome in a restaurant with an international menu.
